WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR

20 JAN 1954

The Honorable James P. Mitchell
Secretary of Labor
Constitution & 14th Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Mitchell:

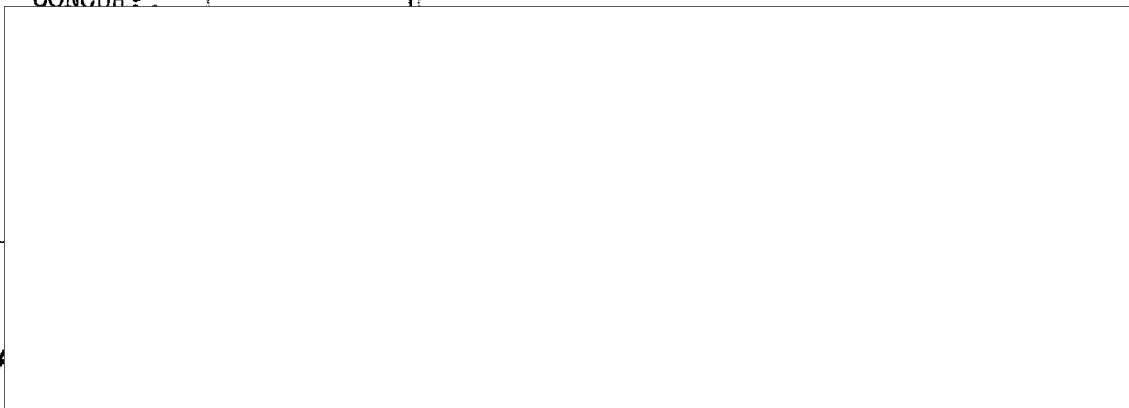

I agree that it would be most advantageous to our mutual interests to coordinate our efforts in connection with the work of the new committee on forced labor establishment by the International Labor Organization.

To this end I have designated [redacted] Secretary of the Economic Intelligence Committee's Sub-Committee on Population and Manpower, for liaison on forced labor matters with Mr. Edmund Nash of your Division of Foreign Labor Conditions. [redacted] will have available to him the results of regular and systematic analysis of all pertinent materials known to this Agency.

Sincerely yours,

Allen W. Dulles
Director

U. S. DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

WASHINGTON

DEC 2 1950

The Honorable Allen Dulles
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
2430 E Street, N. W.
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

At its session in October, the Governing Body of the International Labor Organization received the final report of its Ad Hoc Committee on Forced Labor and established a new committee to carry on the work of investigating and reporting on the situation with respect to forced labor in the world. It is evident, therefore, that the International Labor Organization will be interested in this question for a number of years.

The United States will continue to take an active part in furnishing basic material to the above committee. In addition, Mr. Edmund Nash, of our Division of Foreign Labor Conditions, will be preparing background material for various United States delegations attending meetings of the International Labor Organization. It seems to me that it would be mutually advantageous to coordinate our work in this area as closely as practical. If you agree, it is suggested that you may desire to designate a member of your staff for liaison with Mr. Nash on questions concerning forced labor.

Sincerely yours,

Secretary of Labor
